

BEER DANCE / DANSE MACABRE

Beer Dance is modern tribute to Bernt't Notke's Danse Macabre. It has the same ideology. Everybody is equal in front of death. Death knows no classes nor genders. The same applies to drinks brewed from hops. Beer unites different people, sexes and nationalities. With this democratic message in artistic form we communicate that everybody is welcome in Humalakoda where timeless interactions between people meet with masterpieces of Tallinn's art of brewing.
