

R16 hele/tume

The house beers of restaurant Rataskaevu 16. Served chilled in a medieval building, based on medieval legends (an evil mermaid that lived in the well that gave the street its name, to whom cats were sacrificed as a redemption, and the said house, where the devil himself used to hold weddings along the clatter of hooves), inspired by medieval woodcuts, whole thing clad in purple, the color worn by mystics and madmen in medieval times. Pure medieval madness.
