

PRODUCTION OVERVIEW

...with real war
photography from Ukraine.

Combining staged photography...

Final result

WHERE DO WE DRAW THE LINE?

Ukraine decathlete Volodymyr Androshchuk dreamed of Paris Olympics, but died defending his country against the Russian invasion. Yet, we let his killers compete.

#NoVisasForAgressors

400+

UKRAINIAN ATHLETES HAVE LOST THEIR LIVES

in the war against Russia, including hopeful Olympians.

BUT 54

RUSSIANS MAY COMPETE IN PARIS OLYMPICS.

THERE IS 1 CHANCE

TO END THIS INJUSTICE.

—————> #NoVisasForAggressors

War casualties justice: Where do we draw the line?

Politics

WHERE DO WE DRAW THE LINE?

Ukraine fencer Denis Boreyko dreamed of Paris Olympics, but died defending his country against the Russian invasion. Yet, we let his killers compete.

#NoVisasForAgressors

WHERE DO WE DRAW THE LINE?

175

2

Share

Add a comment

Sort by: Best

Search Comments

Valuable_Month1329

8h ago

The russian state of terrorism should be banned from every international sports event.

14

Reply

Share

Judge_T

2h ago

This is one hell of an effective ad campaign. Think of these poor bastards who only wanted to do sports and instead they got fucking shot or bombed in the prime of their lives, and for what, for nothing. Fuck Russia.

160

Award

Share

2 more replies

Ads of the World

Highlighted Professional Student Collections Watchlist

No Visas For Agressors

Where do we draw the line?

Konoppke

1h ago

Reminder that Russian propaganda heavily uses sport and the olympics as a tool to project nationalism and simulate normal international relations. Also their state doping scheme has never been dealt with effectively so Russian athletes cannot be presumed clean. To only deny them the flag does nothing in terms of preventing the abuse of the olympic games for Russian propaganda efforts, which serve to destabilise western countries like France and help the most murderous war in Europe in our generation go on even further than it already has.

Stop Russian participation on all levels.

107

Award

Share

Notifications

Messages

TODAY

Mark all as read

1,000 upvotes! • 4m

Go see your post on r/europe: "Where do we draw th..."

Carlo Lippold

2nd

Logistics & Supply Chain Professional | Humanitarian Aid Speci...

10mo

International Olympic Committee – IOC has no lines, there only see dollar signs, or at least some. #France can block this as well...

Like

6

Reply

Toiletten-Toni

1h ago

North Rhine-Westphalia (Germany)

Great way to remind people of the ongoing situation in our continent and throwing a judgemental hook towards politicians, organisers and deniers.

120

Award

Share

intermarets

24m ago

Nice. One of the arguments I always use in discussions. Ruzzia is literally killing the competitors from another country making way for their athletes. Cynical way to win medals.

Vote

Award

Share

Silvian73

12m ago

intermarets

13m ago

People often need to be reminded: Letting them compete is not a normalization of the situation, it's the normalization of the war.

Vote

Award

Share

Am0rEtPs4ch3

1h ago

Stop russian from participating at all!

37

Award

Share

intermarets

15m ago

People often underestimate sports sanctions. As someone from inside of R, I know people who are only against the invasion to Ukraine cause they now can't see their spostsmen compete. Get football teams back to Champions League - and they immediately have no problem with the war to go on.

Vote

Award

Share

dreamed of Paris Olympics, but died defending his country against the Russian invasion. Yet, we let his killers compete.

#NoVisasForAgressors

WHERE DO WE DRAW THE LINE?

RUSSIANS MAY COMPETE IN PARIS OLYMPICS.

THERE IS 1 CHANCE TO END THIS INJUSTICE.

70

5 comments • 8 reposts

Tomislav Kajdi

2nd

COO at Enasol LLC

10mo

The IOC is forcing a perversion of the Olympic idea. They must be stopped.

Like

Reply

Yac_65

12m ago

Russia, Belarus, China, Iran, North Korea, India must be thrown out from Olympic games. Hungary, Slovakia and Serbia are candidates for the same treatment.

Edit: orthographie

Vote

Award

Share

Time-the-hippo

31m ago

Left-Mistake-5437

43m ago

NATO, NATO is where we draw the line, and as soon as Russia scum throw even a rock at a nato nation (and they will) politicians better do their damn job and wipe Putin and his scumbags off the planet.

Vote

Award

Share

something9

29m ago

same excuse as for starting ww2...

Vote

Award

Share

Left-Mistake-5437

27m ago

WW2 shouldn't have been necessary. It was though. Clearly Putin hasn't learnt from it, respecting borders and all.

Vote

Award

Share

something9

24m ago

Nobody learnt anything, history is repeating itself.

Vote

Award

Share

Left-Mistake-5437

22m ago

It's a select few who want it to repeat. Problem is we have history ending tools this time round, I'm usually pessimistic but cheers to hoping at least it doesn't go that way.

Vote

Award

Share

Rob Peacock

Following

A Zakupnik for Ukraine (Kharkiv)

1d

Where do we draw the line?

More than 450 Ukrainian athletes, including Olympians and aspirir ...see more

WHERE DO WE DRAW THE LINE?

WHERE DO WE DRAW THE LINE?

WHERE DO WE DRAW THE LINE?

400+ UKRAINIAN ATHLETES HAVE LOST THEIR LIVES

BUT 54 RUSSIANS MAY COMPETE IN PARIS OLYMPICS.

THERE IS 1 CHANCE TO END THIS INJUSTICE.

WHERE DO WE DRAW THE LINE?

54

5 comments • 7 reposts

Like

Comment

Repost

Send